It has been decided that with the help of a new volunteer that we will have a White Elephant stall again next year. If you are doing any turning out and can keep items for us please do. There is limited storage in the hall and items can be brought in on Thursday morning or bigger collections can be stored in my garage. Please speak to me. Sorry but I cannot collect. Rosemary Smith

TWAM (Tools with A Mission)

For the last few years we as a congregation have been supporting TWAM with donations of school stationary kits. Now TWAM ask for donations of cash instead of the items. If you wish to donate then please see the leaflet at the back of Church with details entitled 'Tools for the Journey'. There is also a booklet telling how the gift of a sewing machine can alter the fortunes of a whole community. Rosemary
